Dave,

No, nothing so dramatic! Though, we do give away a handgun as a door prize (not a raffle or any other contest as we are 501(c)4 not 501(c)3, all attendees have one chance to win).

Please find attached a list of items I am asking to be considered. This includes two books (both authors will be present and have offered to sign copies), 1 t-shirt (various sizes), two stickers, a coffee mug, and a small flag. All will be available in limited quantities only.

I've also attached information about OFCC, and you can find out more about the Second Amendment March (in the process of obtaining 501(c)3 tax-exempt status) at: <http://secondamendmentmarch.com>.

If you have any additional questions, please let me know. I very much appreciate the work you've gone through to help us with our request.
